No Place Like Lafayette.
A. T. Mohoney, late of Bates City but now of Wellington, who went to Oklahoma with a view to locating, paid the INTELLIGENCER an appreciated visit on Thursday and renewed covenant with us for another year. Mr. Mohoney says that there is no place that feels to him so much like home as Lafayette county and that he is glad to be back from Oklahoma.

Miss Temple Powell, who was the guest of Miss Edith Powell for several days, left Wednesday morning for her home at Richmond.

Gus Bauman, the restaurant man of Wellington, and Miss Jessie Sanders, of Toronto, Kas., were married at Independence Thursday. They arrived at their home in Wellington Thursday evening. The marriage was quite a surprise to Mr. Bauman's friends.

An immense congregation was present at Thanksgiving service at the tabernacle Thursday morning and all heard a splendid sermon by Dr. Wharton. There was a collection for the "Whosoever Home" at Luray, Virginia, and quite a neat sum was realized.

The following marriage licenses were issued Tuesday morning: Ernest Walkwitz, of Higginsville, and Florence Roberts, of Corder; John Barnett, of Dexter, Kansas, and Florence Beamer, of Higginsville; Thomas Hardin and Belle Hall, of Odessa.

The Dover Tribune is responsible for this paragraph: "Thos. Evans 'took off' a hen and eleven young chickens last Saturday. They were hatched in a tree, the nest being about thirty feet from the ground, and made in a decayed knot hole. No wonder eggs are high."

For all fresh cuts or wounds, either on the human subject or on animals, Ballard's Snow Liniment is excellent; while for corn-busters' sprained wrists, barbed wire cuts and sores on working horses, it cannot be too highly commended. Price, 25 and 50 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young. 11-2m1

G. A. Kennedy, of Altus, Oklahoma, arrived Thursday to visit relatives, his first visit to Lexington in thirty-six years. Mr. Kennedy went from Saline county to Oklahoma several years ago. He was with Price in his campaign in Lafayette county. Mr. Kennedy is related to Mrs. D. W. Weedlin, of Lexington, and accompanied by her will visit relatives in Saline county.

No inquest was held over the body of Kirk Workcuff, the negro who was killed Thanksgiving morning by his brother, George Workcuff. After hearing the statement of the man in whose hands the gun was when the fatal discharge was made, Coroner Weedlin concluded that the homicide was purely accidental and that an inquest was unnecessary.
